“Assisting churches in fulfilling their mission, and providing them opportunities for fellowship and to work together in advancing the kingdom of God”

THURSDAY,
JUNE
08,
2017

As the Apostle John brings the book of I John to a conclusion, he writes, “And the testimony is this, that God has given us eternal life, and this life is in His Son. He who has the Son has the life; he who does not have the Son of God does not have the life. These things I have written to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, so that you may know that you have eternal life.” (I John 5:11-13) Notice that the Word of God says eternal life is a gift; it is not earned nor is it deserved. And this eternal life is found exclusively in the Son of God, Jesus Christ. Those who have the Son, have a faith-relationship with Him and possess His precious Holy Spirit, are the ones that have eternal life. Eternal life consists of a qualitative life (abundant life) here on earth and a quantitative life (forever life) with God in heaven. This life is eternally secure in Christ; it cannot be lost or forfeited. Jesus, the good shepherd, gives eternal life to the sheep. He said, “...they shall never perish; and no one shall snatch them out of My hand.” (John 10:28) The indwelling Holy Spirit reassures the believer that he is a child of God and joint-heir with Christ (Romans 8:16-17). Thus, the Christian’s salvation is secure in Christ, and his future glorification is as certain as his present justification. The Apostle Paul proclaims, “...and these whom He justified, He also glorified.” (Romans 8:30) Charles Spurgeon is quoted as saying that he was so sure of his salvation that he could grab on to a cornstalk and swing out over the fires of hell, look into the face of the devil, and sing, “Blessed assurance, Jesus is mine!” As believers in Christ, we have the wonderful assurance that Jesus is ours for eternity and we will always belong to Him. He is the good shepherd who constantly shepherds His sheep, His followers. He has gone to prepare a place for us and one day we will be with Him, in His very presence forevermore! Knowing this to be true, how much more diligent should we be in serving God here on earth and telling others about His wondrous love. “Thanks be to God for His indescribable gift!” (II Cor. 9:15)

Your Director of Missions,
Charlie
