

About Leah Owens

Leah Owens is an Associate Licensed Counselor by the Board of Examiners in Counseling of the State of Alabama. She graduated from Southwest Mississippi Community College in 1985 with an Associate of Arts Degree in music, and in 1987 she graduated from the University of Southern Mississippi with a Bachelor of Science degree in Social Rehabilitation Services with an emphasis in counseling/psychology. In 2012 Leah graduated from Liberty University with a Master of Arts in Professional Counseling.

Leah has been married to her husband Keith since 1987 and they have three grown sons. She is a PK (preacher's kid) and has been actively involved in ministry for over 30 years.

Leah is certified to administer the PREPARE/ENRICH battery of pre-marital and marital inventories. She has worked at Pathways Professional Counseling since December of 2011.

It is my desire to offer hope for the hopeless and help for the helpless; to treat everyone with dignity and respect and to pass no moral judgment, but offer God's love, grace, and forgiveness. I believe that God has a plan for everyone and it is to prosper, not to harm, and to give hope and a future. (Jeremiah 29:11)
