

Neill Hunter

Neill started his counseling degree in 1999 after his desire to work with couples and families from a Biblical and Christian focus. Neill Hunter is licensed by the State of Alabama as a Licensed Marriage & Family Therapist and a Licensed Professional Counselor. He is also a Licensed Marriage & Family Supervisor.

Neill graduated from John Brown University in Arkansas in 2001 with a MS Degree with an emphasis in Marriage and Family Therapy and has been a licensed counselor since 2004 in Arkansas. Neill moved to Alabama in 2015 to be near his two children, daughter-in-law, and three grandchildren. He has previously worked for three years in Alabama with Eagle Counseling in Huntsville.

He has been married for thirty-eight years and has a passion for working with couples and families. Neill works with children, families, individuals and couples in his counseling. Neill is certified to administer the PREPARE/ENRICH Assessment with couples and with premarital couples. Neill is certified to use the Beck Depression and Anxiety Inventories, as well as the Myers-Briggs Type Inventory and Taylor Johnson Temperament Analysis.

Neill is certified to teach and write home studies using the PRIDE/SAFE Training to families looking to foster and adopt children. Neill uses several different counseling models with his background in family systems including Solution-Focused, Emotionally Focused Couple Therapy, Bowen Family Systems and Cognitive-Behavioral Therapy. Besides spending time with his grandchildren, Neill has a passion for mission trips and has been going to Romania since 2001. Neill started working with Pathways Counseling in March of 2018.
